Create your own wall of fame with prized album covers centered over painted blocks of correlating color.

You'll Need:

Dutch Boy® Platinum® Plus paint (6 to 9 colors)	Pencil
Woven roller covers and roller frame	Level
Paint tray and liners	Hammer
Painter's tape	Nails
Tape measure	Drop cloth

Here's How:

- Step 2 Place your favorite album covers in frames and select paint colors using the album covers as inspiration.
- Step 3 Determine size of color square by measuring frame, adding 4 inches to height and width.
- Step 4 Determine top left point of gallery; use the level and pencil to draw the top and left lines; affix edge of the painter's tape to the outside of the lines.
- Step 5 Using the height calculation from Step 3, start at the bottom edge of the horizontal taped line, measure downward and lightly make a mark with the pencil; use the level and pencil to lightly draw a horizontal line; affix edge of painter's tape just below the horizontal line.
- Step 6 Repeat Step 5 for the number of rows desired.
- Step 7 Using the width calculation from Step 3, start at the right edge of the vertical taped line, measure to the right and lightly make a mark with the pencil; use the level and pencil to lightly draw a vertical line; affix edge of painter's tape to the right of the vertical line.
- Step 8 Repeat Step 7 for the number of columns desired.
- Step 9 Using the woven roller, paint the squares.
- Step 10 Remove painter's tape; allow paint to dry, following suggested drying time on the can label.
